(DRAFT.)

REGULATION No. OF 190

A Regulation to further amend the Mysore Civil Courts Regulation, I of 1883.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for Subordinate Judges being invested, when deemed necessary, with jurisdiction without any limit as to amount or value of the subject-matter in original suits and proceedings of a civil nature, not otherwise exempted from their cognizance, and with power to entertain appeals direct from the decrees and orders of Munsiffs; Her Highness the Maharani-Regent is pleased to enact as follows:—

Addition to proviso to Section 9 of Regulation I of 1883.

1. To the proviso to Section 9 of the Mysore Civil Courts Regulation, 1883, as amended by Regulations V of 1892, VI of 1894, and II of 1898, the following words shall be added, namely:—

"or invest any Subordinate Judge with jurisdiction without any limit as to amount or value of the subject-matter."

2. To Section 14 of the said Regulation, the following words shall be added, namely:—

Addition to Section 14 of the said Regulation.

"And provided further that, notwithstanding anything contained in Section 14 of the Mysore Chief Court Regulation, 1884, as amended by Regulation II of 1890, the Government may, from time to time, by notification in the official Gazette, direct that appeals from the decrees and orders of a Munsiff or Munsiffs within an area to be specified in such notification, shall lie direct to any such Subordinate Judge."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Under Section 9 of Regulation I of 1883, the pecuniary limit of the jurisdiction of Subordinate Judges in original suits and proceedings of a civil nature was fixed at Rs. 5,000. This was subsequently enhanced to Rs. 10,000 in virtue of the power conferred by Regulation II of 1898. The Chief Court of Mysore has now proposed that power be taken to invest Subordinate Judges, whenever required, with unlimited pecuniary jurisdiction; and also with power to entertain appeals from Munsiffs direct in any specified local area. These objects it is proposed to attain by means of the present Draft Regulation.

Asst. Secy. to Govt., Legislative Department.
